1 GINGER CHANDELIER

Resembling soap bubbles on the rise, the crystal rings of Micron's halogen fixture sparkle as they hang from varying lengths of wire. micron-srl.it

2 NATIONAL GLASS MUSEUM

For a new museum in the Netherlands, architecture firm Bureau SLA joined two historical homes with four steel bridges. Clad in polycarbonate and aluminum mesh, the walkways double as exhibition spaces. bureausla.nl

3 PLUMEN BULB

A gorgeous alternative to the tightly coiled energy-saving light bulb, Plumen's latest line of CFLs comes in a number of sophisticated, shapely forms. plumen.com

4 ALEXANDER McQUEEN FOR THE RUG COMPANY

The Hummingbird pillow, part of a collection of rugs and pillows the fashion designer completed before his death, is handmade in silk and wool. therugcompany.info

5 BARDOT SEATING COLLECTION

Named after French bombshell Brigitte Bardot, Jaime Hayon's curvaceous line for Bernhardt features high-density foam padding wrapped in velvet and knitted jersey. bernhardtdesign.com

6 MOJITO SHOE SS11

Architect Julian Hakes' sole-free carbon fibre shoes mimic the form of a lime twist, curling from the toe up to the heel in one uninterrupted swoop. hakes.co.uk

7 ROLEX SOUNDWAVE

Artist James Clar's seven-metre-long stainless steel sculpture, installed in the lobby of the Rolex Tower in Dubai, was created by Clar recording himself saying "Rolex Tower," and feeding the sound waves into a 3-D modelling program. jamesclar.com

8 SIWA HAT

This fedora is Naoto Fukasawa's latest addition to the Siwa collection, a collaboration with Japanese paper maker Onao. onao.co.jp
